Firstly thanks to those guys rebuilding this site. Looks great so far.

At the moment I'm playing a couple of email games using the K heroes and Stormheim units. I'd love another game or two - is anyone interested?

I usually play several turns a week but will play more or less if required.

I've played a lot over the last 5 years and love this game a lot.

Anyone up for a game? Email me on pdoh572000@yahoo.co.uk

Cya and enjoy your games

Peter
