New Divine Right Game

Looks like the good old board game Divine Right will be developed for PC.

That will be a nice addition to the DLR scenario available in the downloads section.

Arvid,

Long time no see. Nice of you to stop by.

That would be great if they actually finish the project since it's not an official game as far as I can tell from reading the site.

Mark Lambert (creator of Divine Right scenario) would have loved to have played it.

Speaking of the scenario section here it reminds me I never did get around to uploading the 2 parts of the Divine Right scenario. Something perpetually on my to-do list but that seems to never get done since so few come here anymore.
