A new mod for, well, uhm...

Hear ye, hear ye!

Fair warlords, I bring news from the other realm, Warlords Battlecry. Pray listen and be not quick to judge.

A beta version of The Protectors stand-alone mod for WBC3 has been released. It has some elements from the warlords series but for the big part it is an improved version of the battlecry one. If, per-chance, anyone of ye' turn based strategy lovers would like to give it a try, click on that image below that is my signature.

Mayhap 'twill bring joy to ye' cold blooded hearts.
