The NUT Heroes...where are they?

I think there might have only been 4 or 5(The "Liche Lord" which I think might have been created by Fawkner's wife? A Dwarven Warrior, A 'Doppleganger' and Cavalier?) but for completeness' sake I would like to get these/this.

SkeleTony,

Sorry, I forgot to add the link when I originally uploaded them. The files were always there but there was no link to them. It's added now.

You are right about the 4 heroes and that Janeen Fawkner created the LichLord (as seen in the readme txt file).

Thanks KGB!

Just bought a new Win XP rig just so I would have a relatively hassle-free way to play Warlords III: DLR and Worms: Armageddon(until GoG puts this one up) and a few other games on. Warlorders was the first site I went to after setting this beast up.

Salute

Tony
