I was thinking we could share some artists and songs that suits Warlords. I.e. stand alone music, not the official Warlords soundtracks.

My top contender is the Tolkien inspired band Summoning from Austria:

Summoning - Rhûn

Summoning - Angbands Schmieden

Summoing - Bauglir

There is also a lot of nice religiously themed music from ages long past but in modern outfit that would fit in with playing an order of religious knights for example:

Vision - Richard Souther - The Music of Hildegard Von Bingen

Isihia (Hungarian band):
